

The “Sick of Winter, Yet?” Contest! (SOWY)

Many of us love the autumn but cringe at the thought of what it leads to. I am one of these people (as if you hadn't guessed). In keeping with this sentiment and to coincide with the release of my Tropical Dream album, I am holding a contest with draws for prizes! This is all you have to do to enter:

Rules:

- 1.) First, be a member of my website mailing list with a valid email--easy!
- 2.) Second, please send ONE photo in jpeg format (1MB max.) that clearly conveys the title of the contest. It can be an older shot or taken recently. It could be of you, a family member(s), your dog, emu, whatever, but the photo must belong to you—no Google images! Since I run a site where some young folks visit, please no birthday suit, polar dip shots or other inappropriate content. Be sure to include a brief title/caption to go with your pic.
- 3.) Deadline—please submit any time up to January 31, 2018.

That's it! I will post your photos on a special SOWY page on my website with a credit of your choosing; first/last name, first name only, pseudonym, or anonymous. I will post photo entries in the order they are received as time allows. If your family members or friends are not fans of winter, tell them to sign up with a valid email on my website and they can submit too. The more, the merrier!

Draws and Prizes!

Though I'd love to offer an all-expense paid trip to a Bahamian hideaway, I'm afraid my present resources will only allow the following:

Draw 1

- *Beach Bum Chair Pattern Scarf (Lovingly knit by Christine)
- *Tropical Dream Mug, Coaster, Hot Chocolate
- *Signed Tropical Dream CD

Draws, 2, 3, 4

- *Tropical Dream Mug, Coaster, Hot Chocolate
- *Signed Tropical Dream CD

Draws will be done in ascending order with names pulled out of the famous green sand bucket from my video. They will take place soon after the closing date. Once a name is drawn, it will not be put back in.

So, start planning now and get in on the fun. Help keep The Tropical Dream alive!

NOTE: this is open to anyone on my mailing list no matter where you live. If you already dwell in a warm climate, have your image show why you love it there. I'm even welcoming those perplexing individuals who love winter—pretend you don't and enter!

*** I reserve the right to refuse any images I deem inappropriate and to make some slight changes, if necessary, as we go along.

Questions? Email. THANKS!
